

Senate Resolution 1106

By: Senators Mullis of the 53rd, Pearson of the 51st, Jackson of the 24th, Goggans of the 7th,
Staton of the 18th and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing Thursday, February 18, 2010, as Transit Day in Georgia; and for other 2 purposes.

3 WHEREAS, there are 122 public transit systems serving all 56 Senate districts in the State
4 of Georgia; and

5 WHEREAS, mobility in Georgia is provided through human services transportation 6 providers, van pools, transportation management associations, and rural, urban, and 7 university transit systems; and

8 WHEREAS, public transportation provides mobility choices and, for this reason, more of 9 Georgia's residents are choosing to utilize public transit in their daily lives; and

10 WHEREAS, orderly economic growth and public health in some areas of Georgia are 11 jeopardized by air pollution, and transit usage contributes to a cleaner environment by 12 reducing the number of vehicles on Georgia's roadways; and

13 WHEREAS, investment in transit has proven to be an economic generator, with every $1.00 14 invested providing a $6.00 return in local economic development; and

15 WHEREAS, transportation needs in Georgia are increasing, with public transportation being 16 used to access employment, medical appointments, nutritional needs, and destinations for 17 social, personal, and educational purposes; and

18 WHEREAS, in rural Georgia 43.6 percent of public transportation riders are seniors and 19.4 19 percent are individuals with disabilities; and

20 WHEREAS, transit provides congestion relief in crowded urban and suburban areas and 21 improves quality of life for all Georgians.

22 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body 23 commend public transportation in Georgia and recognize Thursday, February 18, 2010, as 24 Transit Day in Georgia.

25 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 26 to transmit appropriate copies of this resolution to members of the public and the press.
